I have not yet received the stock you were to send me, perhaps it was sent to Spokane and not forwarded to me.

Can I do anything in the way of writing for you? How is the Rice looking these days.

I shall be here for about two weeks.

Yours truly
A B Keeler

Dear Sirs,

I am duly in receipt of your favour of the 8th inst. and note contents, for which I am much obliged.

If I am looking for a position in the autumn I shall be pleased to apply again when the time comes. If in the meantime you should hear of anything in your district as assayer or mill-man I shall esteem it a kindness if you would kindly advise me as I am anxious to secure permanent employment.

Yours truly
