5th November, 1897.

To

J. M. Harris Esq.

Sandown. B.C.

Dear Sir:- re- January meeting (1898)

Referring to Rule No:6. you will see that the next quarterly meeting is to be held on the second Saturday in January, 1898. and I write this circular to each member of the committee to ascertain their views as to what matters shall be brought before the meeting on that date.

Part of the order of agenda will be the election of officers for the ensuing year.

The consideration of what action shall be taken at the next meeting of the Legislature, which will meet early in the new year. especially in respect to the Mineral Act, the Water clauses ~~Act~~ Act, the Companies Act, and any other measures which affect the Mining industry of this district.

The question of the Co-owner, and the Co-partner, will also be brought up for your consideration and action.

I am instructed to ask you to communicate to me at your earliest convenience any matters which you think should be brought before the meeting so that the order of agenda may be as complete as possible when it is sent out by me to the members at the end of next month.

Awaiting your early reply and suggestions

I am yours truly,

John Kerr

Secretary.
